Pyramid to Host Live Music Gathering on Labor Day Rap Show and a Rock Show at the Mercury Lounge

The Pyramid invites all New Yorkers to a celebration of summer, welcoming of fall, and melting pot of music for its first event featuring emerging New York City "hockey rock" band The Streetlamp, Griselda-singed rapper Brother Tom Sos, and support from Fifth Column at the world-famous Mercury Lounge, on Houston and A, at 9pm on Labor Day, Monday, September 7th, 2026. This party will welcome a crowd of avid rockers, rap game enthusiasts, and Pyramid print media aficionados. Don't miss this great show and best night of the year to get drunk on a school night.

Tickets are for sale at $24 through @thebakerpyramid on Instagram.

Opinion: St. Marks is Dead is a Shitty Book

It's excessively historical and tragic as opposed to argumentative and exciting is all. It's also more expensive than most other books - very New York.
