THIS SATURDAY IN WILLIAMSBURG [untitled] x TRAVE

Present a global music showcase featuring DJs and artists from Germany, Chile, Nigeria, Australia, and the United States.

The city is active this weekend with gallery installations (bottom right), DJ sets (above), and a festival in Bushwick (top middle). Sunsets after 8pm and St. Marks Fridays are putting many New Yorkers in a great spring mood. Drake fans expecting one new album, Ice man, were surprised with 3 entire projects.

99 Scott

This major multi-venue music experience is taking over a single block on Scott Avenue in Bushwick, Brooklyn featuring 25+ artists.

Two American Films up for Palme d'Or at 79th Cannes: Both NYC-tied.

The only two American directors competing for the Palme d'Or are both New Yorkers. James Gray (Queens) has Paper Tiger, a Russian-mafia crime saga starring Adam Driver and Scarlett Johansson, while indie film maker Ira Sachs debuts The Man I Love, a musical drama set in 1980s New York.

"The quality of life is in proportion to the capacity for delight. The capacity for delight is the gift of paying attention."

Starting 5 for the Liberty: Sabrina Ionescu (G), Natasha Cloud (G), Satou Sabally (F), Breanna Stewart (F), and Jonquel Jones (C).
