Caelen Perkins - 2026 Album Out Now, Played LA Show

Woody Guthrie meets the streets of New York. Well, yeah – exactly like Bob Dylan – but with a little more LA. Caelen is just getting back to NYC after playing a festival at the Echo, right near Dodger Stadium. He's just released a new record, 13 tracks, featuring folk-punk "Hold the Lines" which fires everything the singer has at ICE.

The Pyramid is wondering where Carlos Santana hangs out in New York?

Guess that pool table!

DYK: EV Grieve Started to Keep Sophies, Josie's, and Mona's in Business

The Voice of the East Village started the neighborhood's biggest blog when rumors surfaced that the EV's Pretty Girl Bar Trio would be imminently sold. The bars stayed within the family, and the Grieve has kept its storytelling ways in action for decades. The Pyramid is here for entertainment – but also to say, "please dance at concerts more."
